A bit more about Mr. Hickman

He earned the Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Tennessee and a Master of Music from Georgia State University. He moved to the Atlanta area in 1986 to accept the award of Graduate Assistant at Georgia State University. He has served as a church musician since 1988. He began studio teaching in 1990, and has performed professionally often since age 16. He has enjoyed a variety of engagements, including hundreds of community, recording and traveling events, performing for such artists as The Temptations, The Four Tops, the Impressions, The Supremes, Barry Manilow, Aretha Franklin, Johnny Mathis, Bernadette Peters, Marvin Hamlisch, Frank Sinatra Jr., Dionne Warwick, Brian Wilson of the Beach Boys, the Moody Blues, and others. Mr. Hickman is the Assistant Conductor and Principal Trombonist of the Atlanta Concert Band, and Musical Director of the Big Peach Swing Band. He currently serves as the Director of Bands at Peachtree Charter Middle School.

He has been married to Loraine Hickman since 1989, and has taught at Peachtree since 2001.
